

A Good place to live... premier, master planned community.

At the Good Ranch, you and your family will enjoy the convenience of fine schools, complete shopping, acres of parkland and easy access to highways US 71/149 and I-435. These sensitively created homes are set against a rich back-drop of woodlands and meadows.

The Good Ranch is a spectacularly scenic 1,700 acre planned community. It is one of the fastest growing developments in Raymore, Missouri... which is the fastest growing city in Cass County... and this, the fastest growing county in all of the greater metropolitan area of Kansas City.

Seven separately defined residential communities, each with its own individual architectural styles and building types. All segments are coordinated and governed by one master homeowners' association committed to the preservation of the highest standards possible in this magnificent acreage.

Select your home design from one of the many experienced and certified quality homebuilders already established in the area. Planned for the convenience of regional and community shopping, all within minutes of home sites. An office park and hotels are situated within a specially zoned section only a short distance away.

Over 300 acres of parks, lakes, creeks, bike paths and hiking trails connect the many playfields and meadows.
